MASONIC

"KNIGHT AT REST"

In memory of Sir Knights Amerige and Haywood

Santa Commandery No. 36--Knights Templar

December 25, 1915

When I am dead, if men can say
"He helped the world upon its way;
With all his faults of word and deed
Mankind did have some little need
Of what he gave"—then in my grave
No greater honor shall I crave.

If they can say—if they but can—
"He did his best; he played the man;
His way was straight; his soul was clean;
His failings not unkind, nor mean:
He loved his fellow-men and tried
To help them"—I'll be satisfied.

When I am gone if even one
Can weep because my life is done,
And feel the world is something bare
Because I am no longer there:
Call me a knave, my life misspent—
No matter, I shall be content.

—Whittier.

Best Wishes

Sweet Christmas! welcome be thy day
Most joyous of the year
When Gladness holds her merry sway
And fills the earth with cheer

To My Friends Everywhere:-

Please accept these Greetings in the spirit of this blessed season. If duty calls us, or if our paths lead us far asunder which they will, let us remember only the good things in each other's life and be influenced by and radiate to others those things that make for the advancement of the Kingdom and the propogation of the principles for which Christ died.

May you enjoy a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and many of them.

“If we sit down at set of sun
And count the things that we have done,
And counting, find
One self denying act, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard,
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went,
Then we may count the day well spent.”

Courteously and sincerely yours,

Santa Ana, California
